

NOTE ABOUT FREE APPS ON ANDROID AND IOS

Even though the Apps are free, you must have either a Google Play account for Android or an iTunes account for iPhones and iPads.

If you have an existing account, there is not a problem, except that if you forgot your password, and they ask for it, you will have to click the Forgot Password link and have them email you instructions to change your password.

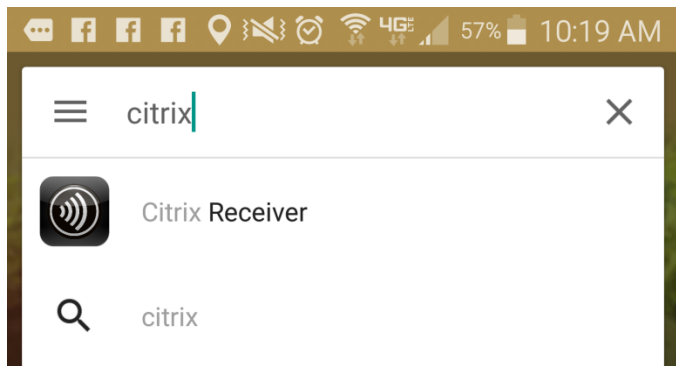

If you do not have an existing account, it is a simple process to get one, but you will have to enter credit card information for it to go through. All free apps will still remain free, and you will not be charged for them.
